

Club Secretary

Introduction

The Club Secretary is key to the smooth running of the club. They provide a main point of contact for administration, information and communication.

Who are we looking for?

- You should be enthusiastic with experience in managing and supporting others.
- You should be an excellent communicator with good verbal, written and IT skills.
- You should have good organisation and administration skills.
- You may be asked to represent the club at External meetings.

What do Swim England and the club expect from you?

- To act as a main point of contact for the club.
- To manage the day-to-day administration of the club including internal and external correspondence.
- To help organise committee meetings and AGMs, prepare agendas, take minutes, and distribute and communicate these as appropriate.
- To have a knowledge and understanding of the roles and responsibilities of other club committee members.
- To maintain up-to-date contact details of all members, committee members, other key club personnel and Swim England secretaries at national, regional and county levels.

Level of commitment required.

This will vary from club to club, but will include ongoing regular responsibilities, particularly in dealing with correspondence.

What support can you expect from Swim England?

- Access to resources and guidance via the 'Club Hub'.
- Direct contact with and support from the Swim England Club Development Officers.
- Direct contact with and support from the Swim England Volunteering Team.
- Access and support from other Swim England teams as required by your club, including (but not limited to), membership, Institute of Swimming, England Talent Teams, and Discipline specific Development Officers.

What will you gain from the experience?

This is a pivotal and highly engaging role which success and impact on the club will be determined by your own motivations and enthusiasms. As well as your ability to organise and manage the day-to-day administration and correspondence, it is an opportunity to take on a new challenge and support the development of your club.
